CALTRANS RELINQUISHES SECTION OF HIGHWAY 25 IN THE CITY OF HOLLISTER

SAN BENITO COUNTY-Caltrans has transferred ownership of the two and a half mile section of Highway 25 through the downtown area in the City of Hollister. The section begins at the intersection of Highway 25 with Sunnyslope and Tres Pinos roads and continues along Tres Pinos Road, Nash Road, San Benito Street and San Felipe Road to the intersection of Bolsa Road. The California Transportation Commission (CTC) approved the transfer on January 29th, 2014 and this section of highway is now officially under the jurisdiction of the City of Hollister.

The city's longstanding goal of moving Highway 25 traffic out of its downtown with a bypass is being fulfilled. "This allows the community to achieve their goals while we continue to serve travelers in this part of the county" said Caltrans District 5 Director Tim Gubbins.

Caltrans reminds motorists to move over or slow down when driving through Caltrans work zones.
